Not Yet.

The University is not given up yet. Before the educational interests of the church will be abandoned, one more brave effort will be made. We have no particulars to give at this time, but urge upon the brethren everywhere to double their diligence in the direction of our educational interests. Too much is at stake to ingloriously give up the effort now under way to establish an educational institution. We will pray for more consecration to God's work, and greater charity to develop the cause of truth.

A $2,000 Speech.

A few weeks ago a certain minister was to deliver an address before his conference, in behalf of an embarrassed seminary belonging to his people. He came forward into the presence of his audience, but declared that he could not go on; that the first thing to do was to help that academy. He proposed a collection on the spot, declaring that he could not speak unless $2,000 was subscribed. From all parts of the house came pledges and subsbriptions faster than the secretary could make the records. Individuals, churches, Sunday-schools, local societies, were pledged for various sums, from one to five, and to fifty dollars. Soon the audience had raised just $2,200, and then the speech was made as no man could have spoken in the presence of an old, frowning, fearful debt. That was business—doing business rather than talking it. So let all our conferences get out of rut and routine. Let churches send up their working men and women to the annual conferences, and they will invariably devise ways of lifting the King's wagons out of the mire, and redeeming from chronic debts certain of our long-crippled institutions.—Ex.

It is stated that the Maharajah of Darbhaugs, of Bengal has given $25,000 for a hospital and dispensary in connection with Lady Dufferin's medical work. His gifts for benevolent purposes the last eight years reach fully $1,700,000.

Boils, pimples, and skin diseases of all kinds speedily disappear when the blood is purified by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has no equal as a tonic alterative, the results being immediate and satisfactory. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other.

Log Cabin Success.

What ails the young men?

Robert Garrett's father left him a fortune of twenty millions. He was from childhood reared in luxury; he received a splendid education with an especial training into a thorough knowledge of railroad management and was expected to succeed his father as a railroad king.

Within three years after the responsibilities which his father's death threw upon him were assumed, he is reported a broken down man, with mind and health permanently shattered.

George Law is another young man left with millions of money, who is reported among the "wrecks." His father, bred a stone mason, was of gigantic size and strength, with commensurate brain power, so he became a great contractor, then a railroad king and left half a dozen millions for his son to dissipate. The young man is a success as a dissipator.

The founders of both of these great estates were born in the most humble walks of life, grew strong, mentally and physically, by simple living and honest labor and developed into financial giants. Their sons were reared in the lap of luxury and developed into intellectual pigmies.

The great men of our country have not, as a rule, come from the elegant mansions of the cities, but from the Log Cabins of the rural districts. Simple ways of living, freedom from dissipation and enervating pleasures, simple remedies for disease, effective and which leave no poison in the system, develop brawny, brainy men, who compel the world to recognize their strength and power.

The wholesome, old-fashioned Log Cabin remedies are the safest and surest for family use. Our grandmothers knew how to prepare the teas and syrups of roots, herbs and balsams which drive disease out of the system by natural methods and leave no after ill effects. The most potent of these old-time remedies were, after long and searching investigation, secured by H. H. Warner of safe cure fame, and are now put out for the "healing of the nations" in the Warner's Log Cabin remedies.

Regulate the regulator with Warner's Log Cabin sarsaparilla and with pure blood giving health, strength, mental and bodily vigor, you may hope to cope successfully with the most gigantic financial problems of the age, without wrecking health and manhood.

Criminal Girls.

The reformation of criminal girls is no longer a doubtful experiment. The possibility of restoring them is being proven in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and other states, under state authority.

If it is possible, then all reasonable effort to this end ought to be made. "Go and sin no more," said Christ. The conclusion is plain. The reasons for reformatory work for girls are many. "What can one give in exchange for his soul?" puts an inestimable value upon it. Hence every girl's soul is worth saving.

No one doubts the propriety of large efforts to save a boy. A girl may do a much greater amount of harm in the world, hence political economy dictates that as great efforts should be made to rescue her.

The voice of humanity demands that girls should be given a fair chance, be redeemed from destruction and the power of destroying, and be developed to useful womanhood. If they are law-breakers, restrain them by law; make them obedient to it, and strive to discover the true means of renewing their nature.

In view of the importance to society of the care, training, and elevation of degraded girls, the wonder to me is that the world has been so slow in recognizing it.—Miss E. A. Hall, at Louisville.

Enough to Poison a Parish.

A Romish priest accosted the daughter of an ex-Papist and wanted to know why she didn't attend chatechism class any longer. She replied that her father had forbidden her to enter his church any more, whereupon this child of the devil, and enemy of all righteousness, tried to instill rebellion and disobedience into her young mind by saying that she should obey him, not her father.

But she replied, "we are taught in the Bible to honor our father and our mother."

"You have no business to read the Bible," said the priest.

"But sir, our Saviour told us to search the Scriptures."

"That was only to the Jews," said the priest, "and not to children, and you don't understand it."

But the little girl, who knew the Bible better than the priest, told him what St. Paul said to Timothy, "that from a child he knew the scriptures."

"Oh," said his reverence, "Timothy was then being trained to be a Bishop and was taught by the authorities of the church."

But the little girl wasn't to be baffled by his false logic and gross perversion of truth, for she told him that Timothy's mother and grandmother did the blessed work.

Whereupon the priest of Anti-Christ turned away saying, "she knew enough of Bible to poison a whole parish."
